IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

SYNOPSYS, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

UBIQUITI NETWORKS, INC., UBIQUITI
NETWORKS INTERNATIONAL LIMITED,
CHING-HAN TSAI, and DOES 1-20,
inclusive,

Defendants.

UBIQUITI NETWORKS, INC.

Counterclaimant,

v.

SYNOPSYS, INC.,

Counterdefendant.

Case No. 3:17-cv-00561-WHO (LB)

ORDER DENYING SYNOPSYS’ MOTION TO EXTEND TIME FOR CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

1 Before the Court is Synopsys, Inc.'s ("Synopsys") Motion to Extend Time for Case
 2 Management Conference. Having considered the Motion, the opposition thereto, the pleadings on 3 file, and any other relevant materials, the Motion is DENIED. The parties continue their
 4 inexplicable inability to work together on the simplest of issues. Given their distinguished law
 5 firms, this is quite surprising. They are doing no favors to their clients and incurring no goodwill
 6 with the Court.

7 I previously concluded that it made sense for the parties to return to the accomplished
 8 mediator whom they had educated on the case. If it was impossible to return to him, counsel
 9 should have returned to Court to see if a substitute would be acceptable. They know better. If 10 they had, I would have ruled, given that Judge Feess was present at the first mediation, he would 11 also be acceptable.

12 I order that the parties mediate this case with Judge Phillips prior to the Further Case
 13 Management Conference set for September 11, 2018, if he has a date available. If he is 14 unavailable, and Judge Feess is, they shall mediate with him and I will consider shifting the cost
 15 of his fee to defendants. Regardless, the CMC will occur on September 11, 2018. The joint 16 CMC statement is due September 4, 2018.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED.
